Entrance to the showroom floor and display areas outside the scheduled show hours is strictly prohibited. On-site security will guard the venue hall during non-show hours and prohibit all parties from entering. Anyone needing off-hours entry to their table area must contact a show host to arrange access.

6. No Shows:

Unclaimed reserved tables once the show opens to the public at 9 a.m., July 14, 2024, will revert to the show with no refund unless advance notification is made.

7. Refunds:

All efforts will be made to work with table holders who experience emergencies and cannot attend. However, refunds for table reservations will only be honored until March 31, 2025. After April 1, 2025, any table(s) purchased will become non-refundable but may be transferable to other collectors. The table holder of record must notify show hosts of the transfer before June 1, 2025.

8. Purchase and Assignment of Tables:

All tables will be sold through the website www.phoenixpolicemusuem.org/national-police-colectors-show/ for $100 each and chosen by the purchaser from the tables available. Payment will be made electronically, and the selected tables will automatically be reserved for the purchaser. The table holder should be prepared to name his table assistant at the time of purchase. Table assistants can be changed later by contacting a show host.

9. Tables

Tables along the wall are defined as Wall Tables and are 8' x 24". All other tables are defined as Floor Tables and are 6' x 24". All tables will have 2 chairs.

To ensure adequate space for the flow of foot traffic and to accommodate those using mobility assistance, all items must be contained within the table parameter of the tables purchased. No items are permitted to protrude or extend outside the tabletop perimeter. Table holders or assistants are not allowed to use any platform, easel, or other devices to expand the size of their table space. Easels are acceptable if placed on the table and remain within the tabletop perimeter.

10. Exhibit Hall Pillars:

No items may be attached to the support pillars in the exhibit hall in any way. However, at the expense of table holders, they may utilize the AC 110 power outlets on the pillars to charge and or use simple electronics such as computers, phones, etc. Wi-Fi is free of charge.

11. General Admission:

This show is open to the public for a donation fee of $5 during regular show hours. However, the show hosts reserve the right to refuse entry to anyone who may pose a safety threat or is disruptive.

12. Sales Tax:

All vendors selling items may be subject to the registration and reporting rules of Arizona's sales tax laws. It is not the duty or responsibility of show hosts to collect or account for the sales taxes of table holders. For more information regarding sales taxes, please refer to: <https://dor.gov>.

13. Reproductions:

Any reproduction items on display shall be marked as such. Show hosts will have discretion and final determination as to the appropriateness of a display item.

15. Right to Refuse:

Table holders shall use discretion in selling insignia that may be used for unlawful or inappropriate uses. All insignia traded or sold at this show should be used solely for display or collectible purposes, not for identification, representation, or any unlawful or inappropriate use. Table holders shall have a right to refuse any sale, trade, or transaction to anyone.

16. Firearms:

Arizona state law forbids the private party sale of firearms from or to out-of-state residents. The regulations for in-state private party sales are complicated. Display of firearms is strongly discouraged; however, advance requests for the display of any firearm must be made in writing to show hosts. The show hosts reserve the right to deny any firearm display request.

Alcoholic beverages are prohibited within the show venue. In addition, The Phoenix Conference Center is a non-smoking facility. Therefore, designated outdoor smoking areas will be accessible to anyone wishing to use them.

19. Violation of Rules:

Any action deemed a violation of the show rules by the show hosts may result in a verbal warning to expulsion from the show. Should a table holder be expelled, the table holder will forfeit the table registration fees. Additionally, law enforcement will be called for any actions of a criminal nature.

20. Acceptance of Rules:

Table holders, table assistants, guests, and family members acknowledge, accept, and agree to abide by the show rules when paying for the table reservation.

21. Hold Harmless:
